When the special electric car held for Barre people returning after the Greater Vermont association's banquet in Montpelier last night reached City square at about 12:50, actual count showed that of the passengers still on board two were bound for points on Main street and 25 for points along Washington street. The Main street passengers were both women. There were also two other women in the group. The car went Main street because the conductor said he was under orders. There was considerable comment among the Washington street passengers and one well-known business man among them went so far as to vent some of his wrath against the traction company upon the conductor.

Floors that are Smooth and Shiny

Are a necessity for every attractive house. Dirty, worn floors should not be tolerated when it is so easy to make them beautiful and glossy by the use of

Inside Floor Paint

Dries hard overnight with a high gloss—thus avoiding the nuisance of a room that is uninhabitable for days at a time. Spreads easily, has good covering capacity, and is very durable. Comes in colors suitable for all kinds of floors.

TALK OF THE TOWN

Excursion to Plattsburg, July 16. See adv. on page 7.—adv.
M. E. Toole went to Burlington yesterday for a stay of several days with friends.

Before you buy a sewing machine, be sure and see the values they are offering at Fitts'.

Timothy J. Denning of Park street was a business visitor in Randolph and Bethel yesterday.

John Wood left the city yesterday for Concord, N. H., where he is making a visit of several days with relatives.

Contractor E. N. Normandeau of Merchant street was a business visitor in White River Junction and Lebanon, N. H., to-day.

Mrs. Eugene A. Magnus of Waterbury arrived in the city yesterday for a visit with her mother, Mrs. M. R. Nichols, of Richardson street.

Barre friends of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Gillespie of Salida, Cal., will be interested to learn that they are the parents of a son, born July 9. The child weighed 7 pounds at birth. Mr. and Mrs. Gillespie moved from this city to Salida two years ago.

Calder & Richardson have sunk stakes for the erection of a large wood and lumber shed near the Allen Lumber Co.'s plant on West Second street. A siding of the M. & W. R. railroad is being laid through the shed site. Woodsheds of a similar design are to be erected by the same firm on leased land in Burnham's meadow.

Charles W. Vancor of the Merchant street extension left the city this morning for Burlington, where he is to attend a reunion of Civil war veterans, principally those who served in the 9th Vermont regiment of volunteers. At Montpelier Mr. Vancor was joined by his brother, H. J. Vancor, who was a lieutenant in H company of the 8th Vermont regiment. The brothers will return to their homes to-morrow night.

Mrs. Charles Northrop of Merchant street left the city this morning for Richmond, where she is making a visit of several days with friends. Friends of Mrs. A. A. Northrop, who makes her home with her son on Merchant street, will be interested to learn that she enjoyed an automobile ride to Waterbury one day this week and stood the trip well in spite of her disabilities. Mrs. Northrop, who is staying for a few days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Arkley of Washington street.

Discordant troubles arising from contentious arguments over band matters were hushed for the time-being, at least, last night when the Christopher Columbus band of younger musicians gave an enjoyable concert in City park. Peter Gropelli, who has devoted much of his time to developing band music on Granite street, led the youngsters through a meritorious program of patriotic and popular airs, with a sprinkling of more classical measures. What the music makers lacked in volume they usually managed to make up elsewhere and a crowd that gained steadily in proportions as the shank of the evening wore on applauded liberally. The musicians attested to their patriotism by giving the national anthem in the finale.

Montpelier Band Concert.
